

THE MAN IN THE HIGH CASTLE
WORKSHEET 4
CHAPTER 6, PP.77-103

You should soon begin reading the Introduction to the Penguin edition of The Man in the High Castle, pp.v-xii. You should also be thinking about your essay.

Chapter 6: pp. 77~103

Part 1: pp.77-91

Place: The Rocky Mountain States, Juliana's apartment

Characters: Juliana Frink, Joe

1. We've heard Rita and W.-M talk about historicity and history, and Mr Baynes and Tagomi talk a bit (Mr Tagomi more than Baynes) about their part in history. What do we learn about Joe and Juliana Frink's attitude to history as they discuss The Grasshopper Lies Heavy and related topics?

2. Are the Nazis really so advanced? What are their strengths and weaknesses?

3. pp. 78-79, pp.86-87: How might the political succession work out among the Nazis when Hitler dies?

4. What has been Joe's experience?

Part 2: pp.91~102

Place: Tagomi's office suite in the Nippon Times Building.

Characters: Tagomi, Baynes, Mr Ramsay (Ito the chauffeur – discussed but not present, and Shinjiro Yatabe – still on his way), the Non-Ferrous Ores man, Miss Ephreikan,

5. p.92 What is the big event in the Nazi party? pp.93-96 Who are the contenders for power? pp. 96-97 how does Tagomi react to the Foreign Ministry briefing?

6. What happens in the phone conversation between Tagomi and Baynes?

Part 3: pp.102-103

Place: Frank Frink's Room

People: Frank Frink and Ed McCarthy

7. Why is Frank worried and depressed although he and Ed have received the money they wanted from Wyndham-Matson and they can now set up in business (as Edfrank Custom Jewellers)?

Summarise this chapter in less than 50 words.

Next section, for Worksheet 5: Chapter 7, pp.104-118, Chapter 8, pp.118-129: 29 pages